Dan, I think you'll be OK with just my permission. And you have it.

Subject: Permission to reproduce an AMERICAN SUBMARINER article on our website

Chuck,

I came across an article in the 2005, issue #1, pages 12 & 13, of the American Submariner that I would like to add to the Perch Base webpage in the Perch War Patrol link.

The article is titled "A Profile of a Submarine POW Veteran: Robert W. Lents."

Per the current masthead, reproduction requires written permission of the of the Editor. (Wait, that's YOU)

I request your permission.

I similarly intend to contact Bob Lents, who is a USSVI member and happens to be an honorary member of Perch Base to inform him of my intentions.

Attached is the text and photos I intend to use.

Should I also contact the author, Art Randall? If so, any suggestions on how to find him?
